Fire at the Railroad Shops.

The alarm of fire was sounded about midnight Thursday evening for a fire in the wood working building at the railroad shops and had it not been for the splendid work of our fire department this shop and its adjoining buildings would have been destroyed. There was an excellent pressure in the water system and eight streams of water were soon playing on the flames, though the intense heat and smoke prevented the firemen from entering the building. Most of the beams were thrown into the building from the windows. The fire was controlled by the deluge of water and the brick walls were saved. The loss is estimated at $13,000 and the insurance men were here Monday figuring up the losses. The fire came at a most inopportune time as there are about 100 cars in the yard awaiting their turn in the repair shop. All the patterns were stored in this building, but these were not materially injured by the fire.
